

POLICY OF IMPARTIALITY

“ICSC Halal” LLC as a Halal certification body is independent of the organizations it certifies, thereby preventing any possibility of administrative, commercial, financial and/or other pressure on it to influence the certification results. This guarantees objectivity in carrying out Halal certification activities.

The management of the certification body “ICSC Halal” LLC declares that it fully understands the importance of impartiality in carrying out work on Halal certification, realizes all the existing threats and takes the necessary actions in a timely manner to eliminate them.

“ICSC Halal” LLC identifies, analyzes and documents possible conflicts of interest arising from certification, including conflicts arising from its relationship, as well as with customers of certification procedures.

“ICSC Halal” LLC will not certify Halal if the relationship becomes an unacceptable threat to impartiality.

“ICSC Halal” LLC does not represent and does not allow the use in advertising and other materials that Halal certification will be more simple, easier, faster or less expensive with the involvement of a specific consulting organization.

“ICSC Halal” LLC does not involve organizations providing consulting services for Halal certification as subcontractors for audits.

“ICSC Halal” LLC does not involve persons providing consulting services of the organization to the customer for Halal certification to participate in the certification work for two years after the completion of consultations with this customer.

“ICSC Halal” LLC requires all personnel to immediately report potential conflicts of interest and emerging impartiality threats and ensures that all necessary response actions will be taken to eliminate them.
